

Eight Reasons to Support Donald Trump

John Solomon of The Hill recently listed eight reasons why Americans should support Donald Trump.

- 1 He continues to do exactly what he promised to do. Has anyone else done that?
- 2 Supreme Court Judges. Democrats are still going after Kavanaugh.

- 3 Winning the "Twitter War" – It may not be Presidential, but it's modern-day Presidential.
- 4 Record American oil production - We have surpassed Russia and Saudi Arabia.
- 5 He has done what other Presidents said they would do, but didn't.

- 6 He has made it easier for small business and start-up businesses.
- 7 He is trying to protect the unborn.
- 8 He has made it OK to say, "Merry Christmas" again.

So let's move on to impeachment!!!

"I have a degree in Political Science, and I am a card-carrying Libertarian. I've been studying politics and political history for the past 30 years. My specialty is U.S. Presidents. That said, I hope that the House of Representatives impeaches Trump. Let me tell you what will happen next!

The House can pass articles of impeachment over the objections of the Republicans and refer to the Senate for trial.

The Senate will conduct a trial. There will be a vote, and the Republicans will vote unanimously, along with a small number of Democrats, to not convict the President. Legally, it will all be over at that point.

However, during the trial, and this is what no one is thinking about right now, the President's attorneys will have the right to subpoena and question ANYONE THEY WANT!

That is different than the special counsel investigation, which was very one-sided. So, during the impeachment trial, we will be hearing testimony from James Comey, Peter Strzok, Lisa Page, Bruce Ohr, Glenn Simpson, Donna Brazille, Eric Holder, Loretta Lynch, Christopher Steele, Hillary Clinton, Barack Obama, John Brennan, James Clapper, and a whole host of other participants in this whole sordid affair and the ensuing coverup activities. A lot of dirt will be dug up; a lot of truth will be unveiled. Finger pointing will occur. Deals will start being made, and suddenly, a lot of Democrats will start being charged and going to prison. All this, because, remember, the President's team will now, for the first time, have the RIGHT to question all of these people under oath – and they will turn on each other. That is already starting.

Lastly, one more thing will happen. The Senate will not convict the President. Nothing will happen to Trump. Most Americans are clueless about political processes, the law, and the Constitution. Most Americans believe that being impeached results in removal from office. They don't understand that phase 2 is a trial in and by the Senate, where he has zero chance of conviction. Remember, the Senate is controlled by Republicans; they will determine what testimony is allowed – and EVERYTHING will be allowed, including: DNC collusion with the Clinton campaign to fix the election in favor of Hillary, the creation of the Trump dossier, the coverup and destruction of emails that very likely included incriminating information. They will incriminate each other for lying to the FISA court, for spying and wiretapping the Trump campaign, and for colluding with foreign political actors, especially George Soros. After the Senate declines to convict the President, we will have an election, and Trump will win. It will be a backlash against Democrat petulance, temper tantrums, corruption, hypocrisy and dishonesty. Even minorities will vote for Trump because, for the first time, they will see that Democrats have spent two-plus years focused on maintaining their own power, and not doing anything at all about black murders in Chicago, homelessness, opioids, health care and other important issues that are actually killing people. And, we will spend the following four years listening to politicians and pundits claim that the whole impeachment was rigged."
